FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CUMBERLAND COUNTY, NJ (APRIL 26, 2018) – For years, the Cumberland County Department of Health has searched for an opportunity to reward the food establishments that go above and beyond when it comes to food safety. We are proud to announce that the first annual Silver Spoon of Excellence Award has been presented to two food establishments in Cumberland County:

- Aunt Betty’s Kitchen at 1016 Ye Greate Street in Greenwich, NJ 08323
- Burger King #17291 at 1601 High Street, Suite P in Millville, NJ 08332

To qualify for this award, applicants must operate beyond minimal code requirements, demonstrate excellent sanitation habits, and practice proper food safety techniques. Both of the recipients were honored at a Board of Health meeting and given a “2018 Silver Spoon of Excellence” placard and window decal to proudly display in their establishments (see attached photos).

Aunt Betty’s Kitchen and the Burger King of Millville are Cumberland County’s finest examples of the hard work and level of dedication that is required to enhance the food protection for the people that they serve.

The Cumberland County Department of Health is excited to continue the Silver Spoon of Excellence Award as an annual tradition to celebrate the exceptional food establishments in the county. Applications for the next award will be accepted in January of 2019; visit www.ccdoh.org for more information and printable application.
